JOHANNES GUTENBERG UNIVERSITY MAINZ

The background image shows a sunny university courtyard. In the foreground, a group of students is sitting on a low wall, some looking at papers. A large tree with white blossoms hangs over the scene from the top left. In the background, there is a large building with a red-tiled roof and a modern glass-walled structure. The overall atmosphere is bright and academic.

REGISTERING FOR CLASSES

- Register yourself using the online tool JOGU-StNe
- Pay attention to the course registration periods:
 - Monday 17 October (1 pm) to Thursday 20 October (1 pm)
 - Monday 24 October (1 pm) to Thursday 28 October (9 pm)
- Registering for classes ≠ Registering for exams:
 - Registration for the courses is a prerequisite for participation in exams!
 - However, registration for a course does not oblige you to register for and take part in the associated exam!
 - Attention: Whenever you are asked for a “TAN”, you are registering to the course and the exam at the same time!

REGISTERING FOR CLASSES

RETAKE EXAMS

- If you don't pass an exam in the first attempt, you can take part in the repeat exam offered a few weeks later.
- Registration deadline for a retake exam: one week prior to the date of the retake exam.
- You are not automatically registered for the retakes! If you would like to attend a retake exam, you have to register yourself again via JOGU-StINe.

It is strictly necessary that you are still enrolled at JGU at the date of the retake exam!

For some students, the dates of the retakes overlap with periods of mandatory presence at their home university.

In this exceptional case, a special retake may be offered only with the consent of the JGU faculty members. Please find out as soon as possible whether your presence at your home university at the time of a regular retake at JGU Mainz is absolutely required and get in touch with the "Studienbüro"/International Office GSME as soon as possible!
